Series TGIF

It was a long cold winter. The first sign of life for car people is our annual winter car show, and a chance to see in the flesh what everyone has been spending all their money and time on during said winter. It was good to see everybody again.

There was a lot of new stuff and everyone agreed that the quality is constantly getting better ($$$$).

The shtick to wrap up the Awards Show on Sunday was a blast – you had to be there.

We have a brand new sponsor now, so several of these will be upcoming stories. Be here every Friday!
